

New fresh food products perfect for the aperitif-time!

Puget olives and spreads

The french brand Puget expands beyond the olive oils aisle. The brand has just broadened its product portfolio and has unveiled a new range of olives and spreads (hummus, tapenade) in the fresh food aisle. A beautiful range with a transparent packaging that puts the emphasize on the healthy benefits and ingredients of the products (without flavours and preservatives).

« Les Tartinables Créatifs » by Boursin

The famous cheese manufacturer Bel Group has just launched in France « Les Tartinables Créatifs » spread range with its core brand Boursin. Perfect for the aperitif-time, the new range contains of course cheese but also fish (salmon, tuna, cod) and vegetables (beetroot, artichoke...). Enjoy this new dip range with pita bread, bread, vegetables...

Salakis Apero

The famous goat cheese brand Salakis has just unveiled « Salakis Apero », a new goat cheese dip range. Two references are available: Herbs of Provence and basil. With this new range, the brand extends its product range to a wide array of uses (aperitif-time).
